Sirba Orchestra! is a meeting between the Sirba Octet, an orchestra symphonic and a balalaikist. An anthology of the most beautiful themes of gypsy cabaret and klezmer music!

IN THE HEART OF RUSSIAN MELODIES, KLEZMER & TZIGANES

Sirba Orchestra! A new album for Sirba Octet who blows a hope happy and forward looking. This anthology brings together known tunes and essential Russian who mingle the abundant mix of music traditional Romanian, Hungarian, Moldovan and Gypsy. Musical nuggets are revisited (Black Eyes, The lily of the valley, Kalinka, a song of the Warsaw Ghetto ...) by the Sirba Octet, orchestra and balalaika answer each other in turn or play together in a festive atmosphere, melancholy or passionate.

Sirba Orchestra! is a program jubilant that welcomes a balalaikist and his magic instrument of Russia to sublimate some titles that are devoted to him. The balalaika is a traditional russian string instrument pursed. She was born in the villages Russian and grew up in the palaces of Tsars, instrument of the poor and the prince, she is a reflection of the Russian soul, in all its ardor and melancholy.

Sirba Orchestra! Window open on a traditional music, abounding, moving and festive that crosses all emotions, from cheerfulness to nostalgia, from love to Jewish humor! A journey of themes and variations from Moldova, Romania, Hungary or Russia which was entrusted to Cyril Lehn who signs the arrangements of this program.

The creation of this new program with symphony orchestra has been one of the major events of the season 2015 of the set. An adventure musical and human that has again reunited the Sirba Octet and the Pau Orchestra / Pays de Béarn for a second order around music from Eastern Europe. A meeting virtuoso who under the baton of the Conductor Fayçal Karoui, faithful accomplice of Sirba Octet, saw the day in its walls at the Palais Beaumont of Pau for a series of concerts in June 2015. The concert was recorded and broadcast live by Radio Classique in June 2015 during the concert series at the Beaumont Palace in Pau.

AN ALBUM AT DEUTSCHE GRAMMOPHON

The Sirba Orchestra! program recorded after a series of concerts at the philharmonic hall of Liège (Belgium) with the Philharmonic Orchestra Royal de Liège conducted by Christian Arming and Nicolas Kedroff, balalaika. The album was released by the Deutsche label Grammophon in May 2018 and the exit was followed by a promotional concert in June 2018 at the Musical Seine of Boulogne-Billancourt. The Sirba Octet will make this program live again with other symphonic formations in France and abroad.

B I O G R A P H Y

When violinist Richard Schmucler founded the Sirba Octet in 2003, he created an entirely new sound. With arrangers Cyrille Lehn and Yann Ollivo, five fellow musicians from the Orchestre de Paris, a pianist and a cimbalom player, he formed a unique ensemble with a fresh perspective on klezmer, Yiddish and gypsy music.

In collaboration with the Orchestre de Paris, the Sirba Octet performed Un violon sur les toits de Paris, (A fiddler on the rooves of Paris), at the Théâtre Mogador, a concert which they developed into their first acoustic album, A Yiddish Mame, released in 2005 under the label Ambroisie (Naïve). With Slavic and Yiddish nuances, this anthology of Eastern European melodies is drawn from Schmucler's own memories of happy family gatherings.

SIGNIFICANT ARTISTIC PARTNERSHIPS

In 2007, as part of the Festival d'Île-de-France, the Sirba Octet worked with Isabelle Georges, the multi-talented singer, dancer and actress known as a 'triple threat', to produce Du Shtetl à New York. An array of music from the shtetl and standards from the golden age of American musical theatre, via jazz, ragtime and lullabies composed by second generation immigrants, the show charts the journey made by millions of Eastern Europeans from their shtetls, or villages, to New York, melting pot of musical influences from all over the world. The show was inspired by Fabienne Rousso-Lenoir's documentary Du Shtetl à Broadway and celebrates heredity and inheritance, an important foundation of the Yiddish community.

The Sirba Octet continued to work with Isabelle Georges on Yiddish Rhapsody, a show based on traditional Yiddish music but accented with elements of jazz, salsa, musicals, rock and samba. Commissioned by the Orchestre de Pau Pays de Béarn, conducted by Fayçal Karoui, Yiddish Rhapsody was unique in its staging of the octet alongside a 50-piece orchestra and was therefore able to perform orchestral as well as chamber music. The show became their third album with Naïve, and was performed with the Orchestre Lamoureux at the Théâtre des Champs-Élysées, the Orchestre de Trier in Germany, the Liège Royal Philharmonic, the Tonkustler Orchester at Festspielhaus and at Musikverein in Vienna.

Their albums have received critical acclaim in the press, winning notably a '10 de Répertoire-Classica' for Du Shtetl à New York, the European Association for Jewish Culture prize and a Choc de Classica for Tantz! The group was also the subject of a documentary by Alain Duault for France 3 entitled A day with the Sirba Octet and Isabelle Georges. In 2011 the Sirba Octet and Isabelle Georges were selected by the Victoires de la Musique Classique to appear alongside the Orchestre des Pays de la Loire conducted by John Axelrod.

Appearing regularly at leading festivals in France and abroad, the Sirba Octet have performed at many prestigious venues including the Théâtre des Champs-Élysées, the Concertgebouw in Amsterdam and Musikverein in Vienna with longer runs at Théâtre Mogador, l'Européen, La Cigale et à l'Espace Pierre Cardin à Paris. In 2012, they took part in the Festival Radio Classique at the Olympia with Isabelle Georges and, in 2013, they appeared at Musiques en fête aux Chorégies d'Orange which was broadcast live on France 3.

B I O G R A P H Y

Thanks to their talented arranger Cyrille Lehn, the Sirba Octet are constantly enriching their repertoire, adding pieces that range from the most famous to the lesser known. Lehn worked with the group on a project for which they were joined for the first time by Catherine Lara. This new adventure led to the album Au cœur de l'âme Yiddish (The Spirit of the Yiddish), released on Sony in November 2012. Captivated by their world, Catherine Lara chose eight of her most acclaimed pieces to record with the Sirba Octet. In April 2013, they performed the album live for two concerts at l'Alhambra in Paris.

The Sirba Octet releases his 5th album Tantz! in 2015 at the label La Dolce Volta. The release of this new album is followed by a series of five exceptional concerts at Espace Pierre Cardin in Paris. The album Tantz! is a musical virtuoso, expressive and dancing, carried by eight exceptional musicians with dazzling performance. This real musical treasure drawn from the traditional repertoire leads the public at the mercy of the Doina, Hora, Sirba and other dances of klezmer and gypsy music from Eastern Europe. Tantz! Gateway between Romania, Moldavia, Russia and Hungary, is seen as a twirling and poetic journey, crossing boundaries and imagination. The great violinist, Ivry Gitlis, major figure and emblematic, dedicates this new album and supports this musical journey. The album Tantz! reissued at the Deutsche Grammophon label was released in November 2017 enriched with two new titles.

A NEW ALBUM AT THE DEUTSCHE GRAMMOPHON LABEL!

The Sirba Octet engages in a new collaboration for its new album Sirba Orchestra! he signs at the prestigious Deutsche Grammophon label. Sirba Orchestra! is a meeting between Sirba Octet, a symphony orchestra and one of the greatest balalaika players, Nicolas Kedroff. An anthology of the most beautiful themes of gypsy cabaret and klezmer music.

This program created in 2015 with the Pau / Pays de Béarn Orchestra under the direction of Fayçal Karoui for a series of performances at the Palais Beaumont in Pau was broadcast live by Radio Classique. The Sirba Orchestra program! recorded with the Royal Philharmonic Orchestra of Liège directed by Christian Arming and Nicolas Kedroff at the balalaika was the subject of new orchestrations and a contribution of five unreleased tracks for its release on the Deutsche Grammophon label in May 2018.

The release of the album was followed by a concert in June 2018 at the Musical Seine of Boulogne-Billancourt. Sirba Orchestra! will be hosted by orchestras in France and abroad in 2019. The reduced Sirbalalaïka version of this program created for nine musicians, the Sirba Octet and a Balalaïkiste, will be discovered in 2019.

ALEXEI BIRIOUKOV Balalaïka, guest artist

Born in a family of musicians in the Caucasus, Alexei Birioukov began to play balalaïka at the age of 10. He spent 5 years with Balalaïka master Pavel I Netcheporenko and graduated from the Balalaïka and conductor of Russian folk instruments at the Moscow Gnessin Academy of Music. In 1991, he won the 1st prize of the international competition of Klingenthal (Germany) in the category "groups" by performing with the Sinioritta Trio and began an international career. Alexey takes part in prestigious musical events and performs with various artistic formations. From 1991 to 1995, he produced a tour in Europe with the Sinioritta Trio. In 1994, he formed a duet with François Heim, diatonic accordion player and created with him the group Balagan. In 1997, he moved permanently to France and played as a soloist with the Avignon Orchestra and the European Philharmonic Orchestra. Since 2005, Alexei has been Artistic Director of the Troïka Ensemble (music, dance, Russian, Gypsy and Eastern European singing). In 2007, he was decorated with a gold medal "Service for Art" by the Charitable Public Movement Fund to support Russian culture abroad. In 2013, he participated in the International Festival of Grand Masters Balalaïka in Moscow. The press considers him today as one of the great virtuosos of the balalaïka. French critics speak of a "discovery", of a "penetrating soloist who has kept his adolescent face".

RICHARD SCHMOUCLER Violin & artistic director

Member of the Orchestre de Paris since 1998, Richard Schmoucler trained at the Conservatoire de Paris under Gérard Poulet, Maurice Moulin, Devy Erlih and Alexis Galpérine for violin and Bruno Pasquier and David Walter for chamber music. In 1990 he was awarded first prize diplomas both in violin and chamber music. He continued to study under Ivry Gitlis and also with Maya Glézarova at the Moscow Conservatory, Tibor Varga and Myriam Solovief. Schmoucler has been awarded prizes by the Fondation Bleustein-Blanchet and the Fondation de France and is a regular soloist for the Auvergne and Toulouse Chamber Orchestras, the Padeloup Orchestra and the Orchestre Lamoureux. From 2010 to 2014 he was first violin for the ensemble Musique Oblique. >>>

>>> In 2003, Richard Schmoucler formed the Sirba Octet and has been the driving force behind the group's progression and the production of their five albums. He has given various masterclasses and performances, notably at the Académie Festival des Arcs, PESH de Bourgogne and the Academy of Music in Bydgoszcz in Poland. At his request, Kaija Saariaho composed Frises for violin and electronics and November 2012 saw the world premiere of the piece, which was dedicated to Schmoucler, at the Borusan Art Centre in Istanbul. In 2011 he became the director of studies at the Orchestre Atelier Ostinato. In 2016 he began teaching competition preparation at the Conservatoire à Rayonnement Régional in Paris.

LAURENT MANAUD PALLAS Violin

Laurent Manaud-Pallas began his musical career in Tarbes and Pau. After a stint at the Boulogne-Billancourt conservatory, he entered the National Conservatory of Music in Lyon and finished his studies at the National Conservatory of Music in Paris where he obtained his degrees in violin and chamber music. In 1991, at the end of his studies, he joined the Orchestre Philharmonique de Radio France with whom he appeared on the biggest stages of the world (Salle Pleyel in Paris, Carnegie Hall in New York, Philharmonie Berlin, Century Hall in Tokyo, Royal Albert Hall in London, Musikverein Vienna ...). In 2002, Laurent MANAUD-PALLAS was appointed principal of the second violins at the Orchestre National de France. He worked under the greatest conductors such as, among others, Daniele Gatti, Kurt Masur, Seiji Osawa, Ricardo Muti and Bernard Haitink, and continues more than ever to travel the world. His notoriety allows him to collaborate with other orchestras (the Orchestre de la Suisse Romande, the Orchestre National de Lyon, the Orchestre National Bordeaux Aquitaine, the Luxembourg Philharmonic Orchestra and the Orchestre de Monte-Carlo) and various ensembles (Arties, the Psophos Quartet, Diabolicus, The Dissonances, Artists Release). Newly integrated into the ensemble Sirba Octet as 2nd violin, Laurent Manaud Pallas is also a member of the Volta Quartet since 2014, concertmaster of the Pau Pays de Béarn Orchestra since 2005 and concertmaster of the Lamoureux Orchestra since 2011. In addition, he teaches since 2015 at the Pole of Higher Education of Music and Dance of Bordeaux-Aquitaine. Laurent Manaud Pallas plays a violin Nicolas Vissenaire from 1842.

DAVID GAILLARD Viola

The son of a rock guitarist and a storyteller, David Gaillard came to music through oral transmission and improvisation. He was named top musician of his year in Jean Sulem's viola class at the CNSM in Paris, winning the Premier Prix by unanimous decision with the congratulations of the jury, as well as the Premier Prix in harmony by unanimous decision and Second Prix in counterpoint, then entered the postgraduate course where he was taught by Hatto Beyerle, Veronika Hagen, and Bruno Pasquier. He was appointed professor at the CNSM de Paris in 2009. He is principal viola of the Orchestre de Paris, and also appears in chamber music with such artists as Christoph Eschenbach, Menahem Pressler, Olivier Charlier, and Marc Coppey, and is a member of the Les Dissonances quartet with David Grimal, Hans-Peter Hofmann, and Xavier Phillips. He still retains a keen interest in improvisation that has led him to join the quartet of Jean-Philippe Viret, which has appeared at the Paris Jazz Festival, among other venues.

CLAUDE GIRON Cello

After receiving Premiers Prix from the CNSM of Paris in cello and chamber music in the classes of Roland Pidoux and Michel Strauss respectively, Claude Giron set out at the age of twenty-one for further study with Aldo Parisot at Yale University, where she was awarded a Master of Music and an Artist Diploma. In 1994 she joined the Orchestre philharmonique de Radio France, moving to the Orchestre de Paris in 1998. Claude Giron also plays in quartet and chamber orchestra repertory (with the European Camerata and the Octuor de Paris among others), and has recorded a CD with the jazz pianist Ahmad Jamal. She frequently toured Europe and the United States between 2000 and 2007 as a member of the American group Pink Martini.

BERNARD CAZAURAN Bass

Bernard Cazauran has been a member of the Orchestre de Paris since it was formed in 1967, and was principal double bass from 1979 to 2012. He was a prize winner at the Geneva Competition. He has often appeared in chamber music, notably with Daniel Barenboim, but also in the field of jazz with Basse Fusion and tango with the Carrasco 'H' Quartet. He taught for 15 years at the CNSM in Lyon.

PHILIPPE BERROD Clarinet

First clarinet for the Orchestre de Paris since 1995, Philippe Berrod also plays regularly with other ensembles as a guest soloist. His repertoire ranges from Mozart's clarinet concerto to Dialogue de l'ombre double by P. Boulez. He was awarded a first prize diploma from the Conservatoire de Paris where he was tutored by Guy Deplus. He has also won a number of international competitions. He became a clarinet tutor at the Conservatoire de Paris in 2011. Berrod has released a number of recordings including Les Vents français on Sony Classical – Indésens and the album Art of Clarinet as well as two complete collections of chamber music for woodwind by Saint-Saëns and Poulenc respectively. These were well received in the press and nominated for Victoires de la Musique awards in 2011. Since 2010, Berrod has been artistic advisor for the French woodwind instrument manufacturer Henri Selmer-Paris.

CHRISTOPHE HENRY Piano

After training at the Conservatoire de Paris with a series of first prize diplomas under Alain Planès for piano, Michel Chapuis for organ, Bruno Pasquier for chamber music and Jean Koerner for accompaniment, Christophe Henry honed his skills alongside Menahem Pressler at the Banff Arts Festival in Canada. As both a pianist and organist he has performed with the Orchestre Philharmonique de Radio-France, Orchestre National de France, Orchestre de Paris, Orchestre de Lyon and the Radio-France Choir at some of the greatest concert halls in Beijing, Tokyo, Seoul, Paris and Vienna and at the Roman Theatre of Orange. In 2009, he was recorded playing Charles-Valentin Alkan's pedal piano, a one-of-a-kind instrument displayed at the Musée de la Musique in Paris. In 2011 he played with the Quatuor Ludwig and in 2012 he appeared as a soloist with the chamber choir Accentus at the Mozarteum as part of the Salzburg Festival. A multitalented keyboardist and passionate jazz fan, he plays with and learns from pianist Emil Spanyi, vibraphonist Philippe Macé and drummer Georges Paczinski.

CYRILLE LEHN Arranger

Trained as a pianist and composer at the Strasbourg Conservatoire and the CNSM de Paris, Cyrille Lehn soon found himself attracted to improvisation, which he practises in very varied forms: recitals, accompanying silent films, concerts, and musical shows. His compositions have been featured on the programme of such notable venues as the Théâtre du Châtelet, the Festival de Radio France et de Montpellier, and the Festival de l'Emperi. He is fascinated by folk music and jazz, and has collaborated with the Sirba Octet since it was founded. Cyrille Lehn is professor of harmony at the CNSM de Paris and teaches improvisation at the Conservatoire du 14^e Arrondissement.

IURIE MORAR Cymbalum

Iurie Morar trained at the National Conservatoire of Moldova in Chisinau (USSR) and won the Stefan Neaga competition there before continuing his training in France at the Conservatoire de Strasbourg under Detlef Kieffer. Performing with various ensembles he has appeared with popular groups as well as symphony and chamber orchestras alongside artists such as Laurent Korcia, Sarah Nemtanu (with whom he has released a CD) and Gilles Apap (with whom he released the album Transilvanian Lointain Boys). In 2010 he made a guest appearance with the Orchestre de Paris to perform Stèle, György Kurtag's Opus 33, conducted by Pierre Boulez. Morar is also an arranger and conductor and in 2012 formed Le Grand Orchestre for whom he has composed and directed two shows – Tzars, which is centered around Caucasian and Eastern European music and dance, and Atmosphère, which focuses on film music from Chaplin's silent era to the Hollywood greats. He plays a cimbalom made by the Hungarian manufacturer Bohak.
